

Resource Number: PU0296
Historic Name: KNOOP, WERNER HOUSE
Alternate Historic Name: KNOOP, WERNER FAITH HOUSE
Located in a district: HILLCREST HISTORIC DISTRICT
Address: 6 OZARK POINT
Listed or National Historic Landmark: Listed
Date of National Register Listing: 8/3/1990
Architect: BRUEGGEMAN SWAIM & ALLEN
Primary Style Influences: 20-International
Secondary Style Influences:

In 1989, the City of Little Rock dedicated a neighborhood park overlooking the Arkansas River in honor of Werner and Faith Knoop's contributions to the city, naming it Knoop Park. Link to parks department page

Werner Knoop was active in civic affairs in Little Rock and, in 1957, became the first mayor under the city manager form of government

The home belonged to a former Little Rock Mayor "Werner C. Knoop as a business and political leader who helped shape Little Rock as a modern city."¹

Additional info:

For more information on and photo of Faith Yingling Knoop, see The Encyclopedia of Arkansas:
<https://encyclopediaofarkansas.net/entries/faith-yingling-knoop-3777/>

¹ "Little Rock Look Back: Werner C. Knoop." Little Rock Culture Vulture. March 30, 2019. Accessed July 19, 2019.
<https://lrculturevulture.com/tag/hillcrest/>.